

DREW

County College of Morris and Drew University

Articulation Agreement Fact Sheet

County College of Morris (CCM) and Drew University are pleased to announce the signing of an articulation agreement. Under this one-of-a-kind dual admissions agreement, eligible CCM students will be granted admission to Drew University's bachelor of arts program upon meeting the conditions outlined below.

What are the conditions of admission to the dual admissions program?

Under the agreement, CCM students with fewer than 45 credits will be granted admissions to Drew's bachelor of arts program on the condition they:

- Graduate, in good standing, from CCM with:
  - associate in arts degree (A.A.)
  - associate in science degree (A.S.)
  - associate in fine arts (A.F.A.)
- Have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00.
- Submit a Dual Admissions Intent form to Drew University before completing their first 30 credits from CCM.
- Submit a completed Drew University Application for Admission & final CCM transcript by:
  - June 1 for fall semester admission
  - January 1 for spring semester admission
- Enroll at Drew within one year of graduating from CCM.

What makes this a one-of-a-kind dual admissions program?

In addition to a seamless transfer of credits to Drew, CCM students who have completed a Dual Admissions Intent form can:

- Register for one undergraduate course at Drew University (up to 4 credits) at the CCM tuition and fee rate.
- Attend lectures, concerts, sports and other special campus events held at Drew.
- Meet with Drew faculty and staff upon invitation for advisement and informational purposes.
- Be considered for Drew's comprehensive merit scholarship program for transfer students based on the final GPA at the time of graduation from CCM. This includes generous academic scholarships, specialty awards and a need based university grant program. All merit scholarships are automatically renewable as long as the student maintains the required GPA and remains in good standing while attending Drew.
- Once admitted to Drew's College of Liberal Arts, students are eligible to take graduate level courses at Drew's Theological School and/or Caspersen School of Graduate Studies and apply the credit to their bachelor of arts degree program.

What are the program to program majors for students in the dual admissions program?

The following associate degree programs at County College of Morris are designated as part of the Dual Admissions Agreement for corresponding majors at Drew:

County College of Morris	Drew University
Biology, option within the Science & Mathematics (Traditional Track)	Biology
Chemistry, option with Science & Mathematics	Chemistry
Humanities/Social Science, option within Liberal Arts and Sciences*	English History Psychology
Visual Arts an option with Fine Arts	Art History

* The Humanities/Social Sciences, an option with Liberal Arts and Sciences feeds into multiple majors at Drew. Students should consult with their academic advisor regarding course selection.

** The Visual Arts option in Fine Arts offers students a solid foundation for advanced study in Art History. The Visual Arts curriculum is designed for transfer into a BA degree program at a four year college or university.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

“This is an innovative public-private partnership that will provide a valuable pathway for talented area students to attain a college degree.”

Interim President Vivian Bull
Drew University

We deliver full-impact learning.