

W. Cary Edwards School of Nursing AT THOMAS EDISON STATE UNIVERSITY

Why Partner With Thomas Edison State University?

- > Discounted tuition rates
- > Application fee waived
- > Deferred billing option
- > Generous transfer credit for partner schools
- > Dedicated liaison and website
- > Dedicated course registration
- > Online RN-BSN/MSN/DNP programs – 24/7 access to courses - does not interfere with work schedule
- > Meet Magnet requirements

Why Do Registered Nurses Enroll at Thomas Edison State University?

- > 24/7 online access – courses available when students are
- > Competitive course tuition; no application fee; no hidden fees
- > Maximum credit for prior learning; no need to repeat courses
- > Up to 12 graduate credits in BSN apply directly to MSN at Thomas Edison State University at the undergraduate tuition rate
- > All BSN courses offered every quarter
- > Nurse-to-nurse advising
- > Every student receives personalized service
- > Rolling admissions
- > Quarterly graduations
- > Professional nursing staff provides on-site information sessions at partner institutions

(609) 633-6460 • www.tesu.edu/nursingpartners
nursing@tesu.edu

What our partners are saying.

“As a Magnet system, Meridian Health is constantly striving to support and promote educational advancement of our nursing staff. Our partnership with Thomas Edison State University offers our nurses the opportunity to pursue high-quality, advanced degrees in a format that fits their busy lives. The education is top-notch and helps both our organization and our nurses achieve long-term goals and objectives.”

Teri Wurmser, PhD, MPH, RN, NEA-BC
Director, Ann May Center for Nursing
Meridian Health

W. Cary Edwards School of Nursing AT THOMAS EDISON STATE UNIVERSITY

About the W. Cary Edwards School of Nursing

- > More than 30 years of pioneering distance education programs for RNs
 - > BSN
 - > BSN-MSN
 - > MSN
 - > DNP
 - > Accelerated 2nd Degree BSN
 - > Graduate Nursing Certificates
- > National community of learners; RNs enrolled from more than 40 states
- > Upsilon Rho chapter of Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing
- > Diverse student and mentor population
- > New state-of-the-art simulation laboratory at Glen Cairn Hall.

About Thomas Edison State University

Established in 1972, Thomas Edison State University is one of New Jersey's 11 senior public institutions of higher education and one of the oldest institutions in the country designed specifically for adults. The University has pioneered the use of the latest technology to develop flexible, high-quality educational programs for self-directed adults and is a national leader in the assessment of adult learning. The New York Times called Thomas Edison State University "the college that paved the way for flexibility." Thomas Edison State University is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education, 3624 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, (267-284-5000) and has been selected by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) as a participating institution of the Yellow Ribbon GI Education Enhancement Program, a provision of the Post-9/11 Veterans Educational Assistance Act of 2008.

W. Cary Edwards School of Nursing Accreditations

The W. Cary Edwards School of Nursing baccalaureate and master's degree programs at Thomas Edison State University are accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).

Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE)

655 K Street, NW
Suite 750
Washington, DC 20001
(202) 887-6791
www.ccneaccreditation.org

The W. Cary Edwards School of Nursing programs at Thomas Edison State University are accredited by the New Jersey Board of Nursing (NJBON).

New Jersey Board of Nursing (NJBON)

P.O. Box 45010
Newark, NJ 07101
(973) 504-6430
www.state.nj.us/lps/ca/medical/nursing.htm

Glen Cairn Hall, home to W. Cary Edwards School of Nursing at Thomas Edison State University