PERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS DISCLOSURE

In accordance with the Uniform Ethics Code adopted by the NJ State Ethics Commission and the State Policy Prohibiting Discrimination in the Workplace, the New Jersey Department of the Treasury requires the disclosure of all relatives, consensual personal relationships, and cohabitants. No Treasury employee may supervise or exercise any authority with regard to personnel actions involving his/her relative, anyone with whom there is a consensual personal relationship, or anyone with whom they cohabit.

Relative means an individual's spouse/domestic partner/civil union partner, or the individual or spouse's/domestic partner's/civil union partner's parent, child, brother, sister, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, cousin, grandparent, grandchild, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, stepparent, stepchild, stepbrother, stepsister, half-brother or half-sister, whether the relative is related to the individual or the individual's spouse/domestic partner/civil union partner by blood, marriage or adoption.

Consensual personal relationship means marriage, engagement, dating or other ongoing romantic or sexual relationships.

Cohabitant means non-related persons who share a household under circumstances where there is financial interdependence.

Treasury requires the disclosure of all relatives and consensual personal relationships to be promptly reported directly to the Division of Administration Director's Office. Confidentiality shall be maintained to the extent possible and practicable. This information may be shared with Treasury's Ethics Office as deemed necessary. Upon receiving notice of the relationship, Administration may address any situation as necessary in consultation with the Ethics Officer. This may include, but is not limited to, changing the reporting relationships or transferring any employees/interns involved. Failure to provide notification to Treasury may result in discipline up to and including termination and the denial of legal representation and indemnification by the State in the event that a lawsuit is filed having a connection with a personal relationship. Employees are under a continuing obligation to promptly report personal relationships that develop during the course of their employment.

- ☐ I DO NOT have a relative or a consensual personal relationship, as defined above, with anyone working for the Department of the Treasury.
